Mark Henke –Professional Background

Mark Henke is a private wealth manager and member of the investment committee for Creative Planning, Inc. Mark works with individuals, families and business owners in the areas of financial planning, investments, tax and estate planning, and charitable giving.

Mark graduated from Regis University in Denver, CO with a BS degree in Interdivisional Studies with concentrations in business, mathematics, psychology and chemistry. He completed law school at the University of Kansas in 1979 and obtained a graduate degree in banking from Stonier Graduate School of Banking, Rutgers, NJ. Upon his graduation, Mark joined Mid-American Bank & Trust Company. Like Creative Planning, MidAmerican achieved recognition for its personal service to individuals and businesses.

In 1992, Mark joined Clune Equipment Leasing, a regional equipment leasing and finance company where he served at president. During his career in lending, Mark extended millions of dollars in loans to individuals and business owners to help them expand their businesses. He has borrowed tens of millions of dollars and understands the challenges faced by entrepreneurs and the need for reliable financial planning.

Mark has served as a volunteer for numerous community organizations including United Way, L'Arche Heartland, Boy Scouts, Shawnee Mission Medical Center Foundation, Rockhurst High School, Seton Center, Villa St. Francis, Children's Mercy Tom Watson Golf Classic Patron Committee, Johnson County Economic Research Institute, Children's TLC, Salvation Army Adult Rehabilitation Center, Catholic Charities, Big Brothers Big Sisters, CYO, Great American Basketball League and Flag Football of KC.

After serving two terms as a board member at Catholic Charities of Northeast Kansas, Mark was invited to serve as the agency executive director, a position he held for seven years. Catholic Charities provides more than twenty different service initiatives for people of all faith traditions in the region.

Mark is married to Abby Henke, former CPA with Arthur Young and Hallmark Cards, and they cherish time with their two sons, Daniel and Luke.
